

In the United States Court of Federal Claims

GENERAL ORDER

In accordance with updated guidance from the Administrative Office of the United States Courts,¹ and considering Zoom for Government has received a FedRAMP Authorization to Operate (ATO), I DIRECT that, effective immediately:

- (1) Judicial officers and court employees may use Zoom for Government on Federal judiciary resources, including on court networks and on court-issued laptops and devices.
- (2) Judicial officers and court employees may use Zoom for Government for court proceedings, for professional-related conferencing, and for internal conferencing needs.
- (3) The Clerk of Court is directed to provide public notice of this Order and to take any necessary actions to implement this Order, including modifying relevant firewalls and issuing a summary of best practices to judicial officers and court employees who elect to use Zoom for Government.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ELENI M. ROUMEL
Chief Judge

November 10, 2020
Washington, D.C.

¹ See Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts, Department of Technology Services, Zoom Collaboration Tool Best Practices and Risk Analysis (September 2020); Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts, Department of Technology Services, Audio Video Teleconferencing Technical Guidance For Hearings Impacted By COVID-19 (June 10, 2020).